BISHOP'S EASTER MESSAGE:

“Extravagant Love”

All four gospels record a beautiful little story of the anointing of Jesus. Jesus has made a triumphal entry into Jerusalem and is now staying just outside the city at Bethany. While he is at dinner a woman came in, unbidden. She proceeded to break open a jar of costly perfume and pour this over Jesus' head.

Some of the other guests began to murmur about the cost and the waste. Why? this perfume cost enough to feed over five thousand people. And so the other guests begin to scold and berate the woman. Jesus, however, does not see the woman's act quite the same way the disciples do.

“Let her alone. Why upset her so? She has done something very beautiful and loving for me. The poor will always be with you and any time you want to you can do something good for them.”

The reference to the poor here may be found in Deuteronomy 15:11. All good Jews would know of this commandment, “There will always be poor people in the land. Therefore I command you to be open-handed toward others and toward the poor and needy in your land.”

Be open-handed towards others. This is what the love of God is all about. This is what the passion narrative is all about, it's about open hands

- About having a generous spirit,
- About showing forgiveness without expecting anything in return,
- About giving to others without counting the cost and without considering the worthiness of those to whom you give..

This Holy Week contrasts the extravagance of this woman's deed of love with the extravagance of love shown by Jesus going to the Cross.

Love that is “measured” or “counted” needs to take a long look at itself.

Jesus said that wherever the Gospel was preached in all the world, that this woman's deed would be told in remembrance of her. And so it has been.

We have been given an example of love's extravagance in order to follow it – the example of the woman who anointed Jesus for his burial, and the example of Jesus himself who gave everything he had out of love for us.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Happy Easter!

Prayers...

- ❖ We pray for Rev Isabel Healy Morrow as she continues her journey of recovery through dialysis and chemo treatments, giving thanks for all who support her.
- ❖ We continue to pray for Jo Lynn Forbes, her daughters Barbara and Wendy and their families as they mourn the sudden death of Bud Forbes. Bud's funeral was a wondrous celebration of his life.
- ❖ We continue to pray for Muslims across our country and around the world in the wake of the massacre of so many faithful Muslims in the midst of their Friday prayers in Christchurch, Aotearoa - New Zealand.
- ❖ We pray for the people of Southern Africa who are still recovering from the devastation caused by cyclone Idai, for all relief workers and aid organizations, especially PWRDF
- ❖ We pray for the Territory Assembly in Quesnel and Barkerville in May/June, for the organization committee and for the people of Barkerville celebrating their 150th anniversary.
